The marriage of Mary Cleaver to Puggsly Addams took place Saturday, Nov. 2, 2013, in Palm Beach.

The Rev. Michael James officiated at the ceremony at Holy Name Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cleaver of Palm Beach and Southampton. Her father is an architect and city planner. Her mother, June, is a designer.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gomez Addams of New York. His father is an attorney. Her mother, Morticia, is an elementary school principal.

The bride wore a gown designed by Vera Wang of white dupioni silk with a beaded neckline and tiered skirt. She wore an heirloom veil of cream-colored Brussels lace worn by her mother and grandmother.

Susan Cleaver of Palm Beach was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Diana Ross of Detroit, Mary Wilson of Los Angeles, Nancy Sinatra of Palm Springs and Brenda Lee of Nashville. They wore gowns of lilac-colored silk by Badgley Mischka and carried bouquets of lilacs and tulips.

Gomez Addams was best man for his son. Groomsmen were Wally Cleaver and Eddie Haskell, both of New York; Frankie Avalon of Malibu and Bobby Darrin of Detroit.

The bride is a graduate of Miss Porter's School in Farmington, Conn. and earned a bachelor's degree in fine arts from Yale University. She is an account executive at Creative Artists Agency in New York.

The bridegroom graduated from Phillips Exeter Academy and earned a bachelor's degree in finance from Dartmouth College. He is an investment banker at Lydian Private Bank.

After a reception at the Bath & Tennis Club, the couple left on a wedding trip to Scotland. They are living in New York.
