FDLE Response to Scene/Summary of Incident (IR #1)

On Wednesday, September 25, 2013, at approximately 0440 hours, the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) was contacted by the Daytona Beach Police Department (DBPD) concerning a DBPD officer involved shooting wherein Jermaine L. Green and [Redacted] were shot by law enforcement. The shooting occurred at Magnolia Avenue in Daytona Beach, Florida.

Pursuant to an agency agreement with the DBPD, FDLE Special Agents (SA) were sent to the shooting scene to conduct an investigation into the law enforcement use of force in this incident. FDLE Resident Agent In Charge (RAC) John L. King of the Orlando Regional Operations Center, Brevard/ Volusia Field Office (BVFO) directed Special Agent (SA) Scott Peterka and SA Troy Cope of the BVFO, Daytona Beach, and SA Ryan Bliss and SA Jason Kriegsman of the BVFO, Cocoa, to respond to the incident.

SA Peterka arrived on scene at 0545 hours. Upon arrival, SA Peterka observed that DBPD had secured the incident scene with crime scene tape and initiated a crime scene log. The scene itself was contained inside the residence, Magnolia Avenue, Daytona Beach, Florida.

DBPD Sergeant Byron "B.K." Williams, Detective Bridgette Hayden, and Detective Scott Goss subsequently briefed SA Peterka on the incident. During this briefing, SA Peterka was told that the events leading up to the officer involved shooting as well as the shooting itself had been captured by two video/ audio cameras worn by the involved officers, DBPD Officer Kevin F. Connelly and DBPD Officer Richard J. Maher. A synopsis of the event is as follows:

On Wednesday, September 25, 2013, 0245 hours, DBPD Officers Kevin Connelly, Richard Maher, and Scott C. Brunier responded to a single story residence located at Magnolia Avenue, Daytona Beach, Florida, concerning a call involving domestic violence. Upon arrival, the three officers encountered subject, Jermaine L. Green, (Green herein) inside the residence holding a steak knife to the throat of victim, [Redacted] (Green herein). Commands to drop the knife were subsequently issued by law enforcement. When Green failed to comply with the officer's commands, Officer Connelly and Officer Maher discharged their department issued Glock .40 caliber handguns at Green striking both Green and [Redacted]. Green and [Redacted] were subsequently transported by Emergency Medical Services to Halifax hospital for treatment.

Green sustained multiple gunshots wounds to the right side of his body. [Redacted] sustained one gunshot wound to her right arm. Green was subsequently arrested and charged by the DBPD with Aggravated Battery. No officers were reported injured.

Investigation of this matter was assigned to SA Peterka. Collection and processing of evidence was handled at the direction of the FDLE by the DBPD Crime Scene Unit.
On Wednesday, October 2, 2013, SA Scott Peterka conducted a sworn, digitally recorded interview of DBPD Police Officer Kevin F. Connelly. Persons present included, RAC John King, SA Troy Cope and Martin G. White, Esquire, a private attorney representing Officer Connelly. A summary of the interview is as follows:

On Wednesday, September 25, 2013, Officer Connelly worked a shift in uniform patrol. During this work shift, Officer Connelly wore a pair of TASER International, clear lensed eyeglasses. Attached to these eyeglasses was an Axon Flex "point of view" camera.

On this date, Officer Connelly recorded the officer involved shooting using his Axon Flex camera. The camera recorded the events immediately before and following the shooting. Following the incident, DBPD Lieutenant William "Bill" Rhodes instructed Officer Connelly to turn off the camera. Lieutenant Rhodes then took custody of the camera. Lieutenant Rhodes later returned the camera to Officer Connelly at the police department and witnessed Officer Connelly download the camera's images into the department's server.

Officer Connelly stated that he was radio dispatched to Magnolia Avenue, Daytona Beach, Florida, in regards to a domestic disturbance. More specifically, Officer Connelly was advised that there was "a male subject out of control on the property." The dispatched call was then updated twice. The first updated advised that "someone was armed with a knife." The second update advised something about a chainsaw (N.O.I.). Responding DBPD personnel included Officer Kevin Connelly, Officer Richard Maher, and Officer Scott C. Brunier, along with one, possibly two other unknown named officers.

The call was received during the early morning hours. Officer Connelly responded from West International Speedway Boulevard (ISB) and Bill France Boulevard. Officer Connelly traveled east on ISB using emergency lights, no siren; then "killed" his lights as he turned south onto South Franklin Street. Officer Connelly subsequently parked on South Franklin Street approximately a half block north of Magnolia Avenue, 100 to 200 feet from the rear of the residence/location of the disturbance.

Once parked, Officer Connelly exited his patrol unit on foot and initiated an approach toward the residence; walking on the east side of the road southbound on South Franklin Street. As Officer Connelly approached the residence, he heard and observed five to seven people, including a small child, in front of the residence. Officer Connelly observed no activity or persons at the rear of the residence.

Officer Connelly subsequently established contact with an unidentified female standing at the northeast corner of the intersection of South Franklin Street and Magnolia Avenue. Officer Connelly established contact with this female to determine "who had the knife." Officer Connelly did not recall the female's response but recalled an unidentified person standing nearby state, "he's in the house."

At this time, Officer Connelly instructed the female to take the small child across the street. Officer Connelly then approached the front door of the residence with Officer Maher and Officer Brunier who had also arrived on scene.
Upon their approach, Officer Connelly encountered an unidentified black male wearing a blue shirt, possibly a jersey, standing at the front door of the residence preparing to enter. When Officer Connelly spoke to the black male the black male stated that "his son (later identified as Jermaine Green) was inside, had a girl (later identified as [redacted] in there, and had a knife, and there were threats made that he (Green) was going to kill her." During the course of this conversation, Officer Connelly heard the front door latch (i.e. possibly lock/ unlock).

An unidentified female standing nearby with curlers in her hair then approached Officer Connelly and stated, "he (Green) was crazy and he (Green) was going to kill her."

At that time, Officer Connelly had no knowledge of anyone else being present inside the residence. Officer Connelly also did not know the cause of the domestic argument.

While standing in front of the residence speaking with the interested parties, Officer Connelly heard a female "scream or cry" inside the residence. No other noises, voices, or audible communication was heard. With the exception of the residence’s southeast window, the front windows (south side) were dark.

Officer Connelly subsequently instructed one possibly two unknown named DBPD officers to go to the rear of the residence (north side). Officer Connelly also advised dispatch that he "had a barricaded subject with a hostage that was armed with a knife, who was potentially ‘signal-20,’ mentally ill."

Reportedly, just seconds after hearing the "scream" and speaking to dispatch, Officer Connelly made the decision to enter the residence. Officer Connelly then asked the unidentified black male subject if the front door was locked. The black male replied, "He (Green) just locked it." This then confirmed to Officer Connelly that the latch sound he had previous heard was in fact the door locking.

Officer Connelly then asked Officer Brunier if the front door on the residence opened in or out. Officer Brunier replied that the door opened in. Officer Connelly then instructed Officer Brunier to breach the door/ force entry into the residence. Officer Brunier subsequently kicked in the door.

Immediately after the door was breached, Officer Brunier, Officer Maher and Officer Connelly, respectively, entered the residence. Upon opening the door, Officer Brunier encountered Green and [redacted] standing in the living room of the residence.

Officer Brunier then began to issue the commands, "drop the knife, drop the knife." As Officer Connelly (third in line) entered the residence, Officer Connelly "caught a glimpse" of a "dark person" (N.O.I.) moving down a hallway. Officer Connelly then questioned Officer Brunier and Officer Maher as to Green’s and [redacted] whereabouts. Officer Connelly was told that Green and [redacted] had gone to the left (west) out of view.

Officer Connelly then moved to the east side of the living room making his way around various chairs, clothes, etcetera that were obstructing his path. Once at the living room's north wall, Officer Connelly looked down the bedroom hallway for Green and [redacted]. Officer Connelly subsequently observed Green in a bedroom on a mattress covered in clothes. Green was lying beneath [redacted] and had one arm wrapped around her neck ("like a choke hold"). The other arm’s hand was holding a knife to [redacted] throat. Green was yelling, "I'll kill her, I'll kill her...I swear I will." No statements were heard from [redacted]
As soon as Officer Connelly had "eyes on" Green, Officer Connelly told Officer Brunier and Officer Maher "he (Green) has a knife up to her (throat)." Officer Connelly then advised Officer Brunier and Officer Maher to stand by for he (Officer Connelly) wanted to get a better view.

Officer Connelly described the knife as "big," having a six to seven inch blade. The lighting conditions inside the residence were reported as dark and Officer Connelly was using the flashlight attached to his handgun for illumination.

Officer Connelly then slowly advanced toward the bedroom issuing Green commands to let go. As Officer Connelly approached, Officer Connelly was looking to "take a shot," more specifically "a headshot." When Officer Connelly approached closer, Officer Connelly observed that Green was directly behind and that Green appeared to be pulling himself down into a mattress and/or in between clothing. According to Officer Connelly, Green was "sinking, he (Green) was just disappearing" to where the only person Officer Connelly could only see was Officer Connelly then heard Officer Maher state, "I'm with you, or I'm behind you" or words to that effect. Officer Connelly subsequently continued his advance down the hallway toward the bedroom, at which time Green removed the knife from neck and attempted to stab in the chest making contact.

At this time, without delay Officer Connelly advanced into the bedroom to the right of Green, leaned over [holding his handgun in the right-hand, flashlight activated], and at a distance of twelve to fifteen inches, discharged his firearm four times into Green's right side. Officer Connelly advised that he discharged his handgun, because he felt that life was in immediate danger. According to Connelly, Green was significantly larger, "260 lbs" (estimated weight), than and he was certain that Green was going to continue to "plunge" the knife into chest and kill her.

Officer Maher also discharged his handgun. Officer Connelly did not know how many times Officer Maher discharged his handgun or where Officer Maher was located inside the bedroom when the firearms were discharged.

Once Officer Connelly's and Officer Maher's handguns were discharged, Green either dropped or threw down the knife. Officer Connelly then instructed Officer Brunier to get out of the room. At this time, Officer Connelly observed that had received a gunshot wound to the right arm. was subsequently taken either to another room or outside.

When Officer Brunier returned, Officer Connelly told Officer Brunier and Officer Maher that he (Officer Connelly) had Green, who was semiconscious "coming in and out," covered. Officer Connelly then instructed Officer Brunier and Officer Maher to clear the remainder of the residence.

Officer Connelly then held Green at "gunpoint" until medical personnel arrived on scene. While waiting for EVAC, Officer Connelly grabbed Green's knife, which was lying near Green and threw the knife to the other side of the room. Officer Connelly also removed a "large rake" lying beneath Green and threw it across the room. Officer Connelly was relieved shortly thereafter and stepped out into the living room with Lieutenant Rhodes. Officer Connelly was then taken to the DBPD, 129 Valor Boulevard, Daytona Beach, Florida, to be processed.
On Monday, October 21, 2013, SA Scott Peterka received a letter from the Law Offices of Politis & Matovina P.A. concerning their client, DBPD Officer Richard J. Maher. In part, the letter, authored by attorney Michael J. Politis, stated that Officer Maher would not be providing a voluntary statement as it relates to the shooting of Jermaine Green on September 25, 2013.

On date of incident, Officer Richard J. Maher and Officer Kevin F. Connelly recorded the events leading up to, during, and following the officer involved shooting on Axon Flex "point of view" cameras. Prior to the receipt of this letter, Mr. Politis opined verbally to SA Peterka that the audio and visual images captured by the cameras should suffice in documenting Officer Maher’s actions. Mr. Politis indicated that he was willing to discuss this matter further with the State Attorney’s Office, if needed.

On Wednesday, September 25, 2013, SA Ryan Bliss conducted a sworn, digitally recorded interview of DBPD Police Officer Scott C. Brunier. A summary of the interview is as follows:

On this date, Officer Brunier worked a shift in uniform patrol. During this work shift, Officer Brunier advised that a disturbance call for service was dispatched from the DBPD Dispatch Center. While en-route to the scene, continued updates were being provided to the responding officers. There were two different individuals calling 911. One of the female callers advised, "He has a knife he is going crazy." The other 911 caller advised, "He has a chainsaw." Officer Brunier advised that considering the two different potentially violent 911 calls, he did not know what to expect when he arrived on scene.

Officer Brunier advised he was approximately one block away when the initial call was dispatched but waited for back-up officers to arrive on scene for officer safety before approaching the residence. DBPD Patrol Officer Richard J. Maher and DBPD Patrol Officer Kevin F. Connelly arrived on scene. According to Officer Brunier, both Officer Maher and Officer Connelly were in full uniform and were operating fully marked DBPD marked units.

As Officer Brunier approached the residence, he observed approximately five (5) people in the front yard of the residence. Officer Brunier asked an unidentified black female (described as a hysterical older black female) what was happening and she responded, "I don't know he is going crazy he is gonna hurt her." Another black female was in the yard, and when Officer Brunier asked her what was happening, she advised, "I don't know I was sleeping."

Officer Brunier advised that the officers on scene then gathered by the front door of the residence, where an older black male (later identified as the homeowner Daniel Clint Henry) was standing, who repeatedly stated, "He is in the house, he's got a knife, he's gonna kill her." While speaking with Henry, Officer Brunier heard the front door close and someone in the yard stated, "He locked it." In order to gain entry to the home, Officer Brunier kicked the front door three separate times and gained entry to the residence.

Once inside the residence, Officer Brunier observed Jermaine L. Green standing at the end of a hallway holding a "Twelve (12) inch butcher knife" to the neck of his girlfriend, Officer Brunier, Officer Connelly and Officer Maher then began repeatedly yelling... verbal commands to "Drop the knife." Green responded to the verbal commands by stating, "If you all don't back up I'm going to jug her." (According to Officer Brunier, "jug" her means he is going to stab her.) With the knife still being held to throat, Green then dragged her into a bedroom located on the left side of the hallway.

Officer Brunier and Officer Maher subsequently approached the hallway and Officer Connelly "Fanned out to the right" to get a better angle of the bedroom where Officer Connelly observed Green and  in the bedroom. Officer Connelly continued to give verbal commands, "Drop the knife." Green continued stating "I'm going to stab her." Officer Brunier advised that from his position in the hallway he could not see into the bedroom.

As Officer Brunier, Officer Connelly and Officer Maher approached the bedroom from the hallway; Officer Brunier observed blood in the hallway and believed that Jermaine Green had already cut . The officers were in a "stack formation" with Officer Connelly first, Officer Maher second, and Officer Brunier third in line. Officer Brunier recalled that one of the officers that had a visual, yelled, "He's cuttin her, he's cuttin her." Officer Brunier yelled, "Shoot him."

As Officer Brunier, Officer Connelly and Officer Maher tactically entered the bedroom in the aforementioned "Stack formation" order, they "fanned out" in the same order. Officer Brunier was inside the bedroom to the left of the bedroom door while Officer Connelly and Officer Maher were to the right of the door. Green and  were positioned to the front right of Officer Connelly and Officer Maher. Officer Brunier advised that the room was very small and they were all standing shoulder to shoulder. Officer Brunier advised that the room was full of clothes and carry type bags on the floor, only allowing for an approximate two (2) feet wide walkway in the bedroom.

Officer Brunier observed Green lying on his back on the floor with  being held on top of him as a shield. Officer Brunier observed that Green was holding the knife with the sharp end on her sternum ready to be thrust into her flesh. Officer Brunier yelled, "Shoot him." because he was concerned that "The knife was going through her chest." Officer Brunier advised that he could not shoot because of his position in the stack formation. Officer Brunier believed that Officer Connelly and Officer Maher may have fired five (5) or six (6) shots.

Officer Brunier did not recall if  yelled for help, but did recall her saying she was shot. Officer Brunier advised that even though Green was using  as a protective shield, he was such a large man he was still exposed.

Subsequent to Officer Connelly and Officer Maher shooting Green, they quickly grabbed  to get her out of danger. Green's left hand was concealed under clothing resulting in the officers being unable to determine if he had a weapon in his hand. The knife that Green was holding to  chest was moved away from Green, while lethal cover was maintained until rescue personnel arrived on scene.

Officer Brunier advised that most of the shots were fired into Jermaine Green's right hip area, with one in his arm. Officer Brunier advised that Jermaine Green was resisting the rescue personnel rescue efforts by pulling his arms away from the security straps on the medical gurney.

Officer Brunier advised that if Green was not shot, the knife would have gone through  chest and she would have been killed. Officer Brunier advised that if he was in a position to shoot he would not have yelled "Shoot him." "He would have just shot." Officer Brunier advised that Jermaine Green is approximately 6 feet 02 inches tall and approximately 240 lbs, and [Redacted] is approximately 5 feet 06 inches tall and approximately 115 lbs. [Redacted] was wearing a night gown and Green was only wearing a yellow T-shirt, and he was naked from the waist down. Officer Brunier advised that one of the females in the yard advised that she was awakened by [Redacted] screaming and subsequently observed Green holding the knife to [Redacted] head.

Interview of [Redacted] (Victim) (IR #11 and #26)

On Wednesday, September 25, 2013, SA Scott Peterka conducted a sworn, digitally recorded interview of [Redacted] SA Troy Cope was also present. A summary of the interview is as follows:

[Redacted] stated that at this date early this morning, approximately one to one and a half hours prior to the incident, she and her boyfriend, Jermaine Green, along with "Miss Lisa" traveled from Magnolia Avenue, Daytona Beach, Florida, to the nearby Sunoco gas/convenience store. Once at the store, [Redacted] and "Miss Lisa" remained outside and stood around the corner. Green entered and purchased cigarettes and beer.

[Redacted] Green, and "Miss Lisa" then returned to Magnolia Avenue. Upon arrival, they sat in front yard and began to drink beer. It later started to "drizzle" and they moved to the backyard.

According to [Redacted], Jerome Green and "Miss Lisa" reside in a single story residence located at Magnolia Avenue, Daytona Beach, Florida. Additional residents include: Jerome Green's father, "Clint" Henry; mother, Donna Green; and "Ron" Coleman. Henry reportedly operates a tree service and employs Donna Green, Jerome Green, Coleman, and "Miss Lisa."

Later that night/morning, [Redacted] became tired and told Green that she was going inside to lie down. Upon hearing this, Green became upset, because he wanted her to remain outside talking to him. [Redacted] then entered the residence and sat down.

Once inside, Green approached [Redacted] stating, "Come on, let me talk to you." [Redacted] replied "I don't want to talk; I just want to lay down and go to sleep." Green then "snatched" [Redacted] out of the chair and took her into the front yard.

Once in the front yard, Green threw [Redacted] onto the ground two to three times. Green's mother (Donna Green) and father ("Clint" Henry) then attempted to intercede and tried to get their son to stop, but were unsuccessful.

Green then picked up a "brick," a concrete block, from the yard and approached [Redacted]. At this time, Green's father ("Clint" Henry) picked up "a rake" and told Green not to hit [Redacted] with the brick. Green's father ("Clint" Henry) and others then shouted out, "call the police, call the police, call the police."

[Redacted] does not recall exactly what happened next but remembers ending up on her back on the ground and Green throwing the "brick" down onto her head. The "brick" reportedly hit [Redacted] in the forehead. According to [Redacted] Green's actions were intentional and she stated, "He meant to hit me."
then got up with a bleeding forehead and ran into the house. Green subsequently followed. Green then remained in the house with until the incident concluded. Green remained inside, because he observed police outside surrounding the residence.

While the police were surrounding the residence, was in the bathroom, which was located just east of Donna Green's bedroom [directly off the living room] tending to her head wound, and Green was reportedly retrieving a "long" knife from the kitchen. described the knife's blade as being seven to eight inches long, possibly a little longer.

At or about the same time Green saw the police, exited the bathroom. Green then grabbed and placed one arm around neck and used his other hand to hold the kitchen knife pointed downward towards chest [against her sternum].

Green, now standing in a short hallway, then backed up into his mother's (Donna Green's) bedroom pulling along with him. According to Green's arm was choking her and the knife was being pressed point first into her chest.

Once in the bedroom, Green and fell down in front of the doorway between the bed and a television set. did not know why they fell but opined that Green pulled her down, because he was allegedly using her to "shield" himself from the police. Green was now lying with her back atop Green's chest, off to one side. Green still had his arm wrapped around neck. Shortly thereafter, heard gunshots.

Following the gunshots, looked at Green and observed that he appeared "past out." then "jumped up" and ran outside into the front yard. As ran for safety, she noticed her hand "dangling" and realized that she had been shot. subsequently sat down in a chair and was later transported by ambulance to the hospital.

did not know how many police officers were on scene or the manner in which the police entered the residence. also did not recall the police kicking in the front door or the knife being placed against her throat. stated that she later learned that the police had to kick in the front door because Green had locked the doors and "knocked" out all the lights.

initially recalled that when the officers first confronted Green they instructed him to "put it down, put it down" (referring to the knife) and Green replied, "You all need to back away, back way." Later during the course of the interview, failed to recall having hearing the police officers state anything. herself stated that she did not say anything, "not a word!"

articulated that during the incident she was in fear for her life and thought Green was going to stab her. stated, "I've never seen him [Green] act like that before, the way he acted, and I was literally scared for my life. Cause after he hit me in my head with that brick like that, you know it's not playtime, he's serious."

opined that Green's actions were caused by a "pill or something." was of the belief that someone at the Sunoco gave Green something because he was acting "very, very, out of the way." According to Green had never "snapped" like that before. stated that she could see "craziness in his [Green's] eyes."
Interview of Daniel “Clint” Henry (Witness) (IR #4)

On September 25, 2013, SA Ryan Bliss conducted a sworn, digitally recorded interview of Daniel “Clint” Henry. A summary of the interview is as follows:

Daniel “Clint” Henry was present during the domestic incident between his son, Jermaine Green and Green’s girlfriend, [redacted]. Henry owns the residence located at Magnolia Avenue, Daytona Beach, Florida.

Henry stated that Jermaine Green works for him cutting and trimming trees. Jermaine Green also lives at the residence with him, Jermaine Green’s mother, Donna R. Green, co-workers, Ronald Coleman, and Ann Holsey. Henry advised that he raised Jermaine Green but is not Jermaine Green’s father, and he is not dating or romantically involved with Donna Green. Henry advised that Jermaine Green sleeps on the couch, and his girlfriend [redacted] sleeps at the residence occasionally, as she was the night of the shooting.

Henry advised that something unexplainable happened this date with Jermaine Green. Green “Exploded and he (Green) was out of his mind.” Henry believed that Green was under the influence of an illegal narcotic, as Green has been known to use illegal narcotics previously, primarily powder cocaine. Henry has always been able to talk with Green, but was unable this day.

Jermaine Green did not work the previous day and remained at the house all day with [redacted] and her juvenile child, known as “Good Johnny”. When Henry returned home from work at approximately 1830 hours, [redacted] and Jermaine Green requested Henry to drive them and “Good Johnny” to [redacted] apartment, so she could pick up some clothes and then to the Laundromat to wash clothes.

Henry then drove Green and [redacted] to [redacted] apartment at approximately 2130 hours and then to the Laundromat. Subsequent to dropping Green and [redacted] off at the Laundromat, Henry ran other errands and returned to the Laundromat to pick them up at approximately 0000 hours. When Henry picked Green and [redacted] up they were not arguing and seemed to be getting along with one another.

Henry advised that Jermaine Green had been soliciting him and Donna Green for money but Henry and Donna Green refused to give Jermaine Green any money, because they believed the money would have been used to purchase illegal narcotics. According to Henry, Jermaine Green’s demeanor changed toward him (Henry), because he would not give Jermaine Green any money. Henry advised that Jermaine Green may have received money from someone, and that Green may have subsequently purchased illegal narcotics.

Once Green and [redacted] returned to the residence, Green continually requested that [redacted] go outside with him. [redacted] refused to go outside and Jermaine Green continued his request until Green “clicked.” Green “snatched” [redacted] out of the residence and dragged her outside into the back of the residence while “Good Johnny” watched. “Good Johnny” immediately grabbed a knife and said, “I’m going to kill you.” Henry grabbed the knife from “Good Johnny” and directed him away from Green and [redacted] Henry advised that he tried to pull [redacted] away from Green, but was unable to because Green is as strong as “four (4) or five (5) ox’s; that joker is strong.” [redacted] continued to plead for Green to release her, all of which was ignored.
At one point, Green released [REDACTED] and began tearing apart a barbecue grill that was also in the back yard. According to Henry, "He was out of his mind." Once [REDACTED] was released, Henry grabbed [REDACTED] and entered the residence via the front door and locked the door to prevent Green from entering the residence. Unbeknownst to Henry and Donna Green, the back door remained unlocked. Jermaine Green then entered the residence via the back door and immediately grabbed a knife from the kitchen, grabbed [REDACTED] and dragged her to the back bedroom. Henry pleaded with Jermaine Green to drop the knife and let [REDACTED] go free, all of which was ignored. Henry advised that Green was on the floor with [REDACTED] on the bottom and Green on top of her with the knife to her neck, saying nothing. "Good Johnny" saw this occurring and was pleading, "Please don't kill my momma, please don't kill my momma."

[REDACTED] was continually pleading with Jermaine Green, saying "Jermaine you don't have to do this." Henry advised that Donna Green called the DBPD from outside the residence, and it seemed as if thirty (30) to forty-five (45) minutes passed before the police arrived on scene. Once the police arrived on scene, they approached the residence slowly, yelling at Henry to get off the porch.

While the police were at the front of the residence on the porch, Jermaine Green locked the front door. The police entered the residence via the front door yelling verbal commands, "Put the knife down." Approximately one to two minutes later, Henry heard one of the officers yelling, "Shoot the bitch, shoot the bitch."

Henry advised that the police later informed him that they shot Green because "The knife was around the throat." Henry was in the living room of the residence during the shooting, but did not observe the officers discharge their firearms. According to Henry, the officers discharged their firearms five (5) or six (6) times.

Interview of Donna R. Green (Witness)

On Wednesday, September 25, 2013, SA Ryan Bliss conducted a sworn, digitally recorded interview of Donna R. Green, the biological mother of subject, Jermaine L. Green. A summary of the interview is as follows:

Donna Green advised that Jermaine Green works for Daniel “Clint” Henry cutting and trimming trees. Jermaine Green also lives at the residence with Henry, herself (Donna Green), and co-workers, Ronald Coleman, and Ann Holsey. Donna Green advised that Jermaine Green did not work the previous day and that he had remained home with his girlfriend [REDACTED] [REDACTED] When Donna Green returned home from work she was not feeling well, so she decided to take a bath, take her medication, and go to bed. Jermaine Green gathered articles of clothing to clean at the Laundromat.

Henry transported Jermaine Green and [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] juvenile son, "Good Johnny", to the Laundromat. Henry returned home and they watched television for an undetermined amount of time. Donna Green fell asleep on the couch and was awakened at an undetermined time by [REDACTED] yelling that she "did not want to go out the door." Jermaine Green continued to request that [REDACTED] go outside.

Donna Green subsequently told Jermaine Green to leave [REDACTED] alone, as she was walking to the bathroom. While in the bathroom, Donna Green advised that she heard "loud booms or scuffling." When Donna Green emerged from the bathroom, she observed that everyone was "Out of the door." in the front yard of the residence. Donna Green then exited the residence via the front door and walked around to the backyard where Jermaine Green, [REDACTED] and Henry were located. Donna Green once again told Jermaine Green, "Leave that girl alone why you doin this."

Donna Green advised that Jermaine Green was not hitting [REDACTED] only holding her, preventing her from being able to get away, and not speaking to [REDACTED]. Donna Green subsequently approached Jermaine Green and began hitting him saying, "Turn her loose." At that point Jermaine Green released [REDACTED]. Donna Green picked up a brick from the ground and threw it at Jermaine Green's head, but missed as he ran away.

Donna Green advised that [REDACTED] head was bleeding and when asked, Donna Green was unsure if the injury was sustained from Jermaine Green throwing the same brick at [REDACTED] or if [REDACTED] fell on the brick and cut her forehead. As Jermaine Green ran from the residence, Donna Green yelled for [REDACTED] to get in the residence and lock the door to prevent Jermaine Green from reentering. The front door was locked, while the back door remained open. Jermaine Green subsequently entered the residence via the back door and grabbed [REDACTED] again and "took her into the room."

At this point, Donna Green grabbed her cellular telephone, ran out of the residence, and called "911." Donna Green advised that she was "screaming and hollering, I was crying telling them to get here I think my son is going crazy, please get here, he is acting crazy, he's on something."

Donna Green advised that Jermaine Green had to be on some illegal narcotic, because she has never seen him act like this before. Donna Green advised that she remained outside the residence waiting for the DBPD to arrive. Donna Green advised that she did not know what was happening inside the residence while she was outside.

Once the police arrived, Donna Green told the officers that Jermaine Green needed to be baker acted and that the officers did not need their guns. Subsequent to Donna Green exiting the residence, Jermaine Green locked the front door. The officers then kicked the front door open and entered the residence with their Taser gun in hand. Donna Green asked the officers if she could speak with Jermaine Green and she was directed to exit the residence. Donna Green then heard one of the DBPD officers yell, "Shoot the bitch." and then heard a series of five to six gun shots. Donna Green then ran out of the residence down the road away from the residence.

Donna Green advised that the police later informed her that Jermaine Green had a knife to [REDACTED] neck but she did not see Jermaine Green holding a knife to [REDACTED] neck. Donna Green also advised that Jermaine Green was not "Swinging that knife or nothing like that." Donna Green reported that she observed Jermaine Green with a knife and the officers told him to drop it but he was not trying to cut anybody. Interview of Rondale C. Coleman (Witness) (IR #10)

On Wednesday, September 25, 2013, SA Scott Peterka conducted a sworn, digitally recorded interview of Rondale C. Coleman. A summary of the interview is as follows:

Rondale Coleman related that on that date, at approximately 0130 hours, he witnessed a "domestic squabble" inside his residence at Magnolia Avenue, Daytona Beach, Florida, between Jermaine L. Green and Green's girlfriend, "Little Bit" (later identified as the "squabble" initiated while Coleman was watching television. Persons present included: Daniel "Clint" Henry, Donna R. Green, and Ann L. Holsey.

Coleman described the "domestic squabble" as a "boyfriend, girlfriend argument." Coleman did not know what the "squabble" concerned. According to Coleman, the "squabble" carried on for a few minutes, then got serious, and became physical.

Coleman subsequently witnessed Green and fighting and opined Green was "too big to be manhandling her like that." According to Coleman, Green was grabbing trying to pull her outside. Due to Green's size, was reportedly unable to fight back; could only try to defend herself.

Green then got into the backyard where the fight reportedly got worse. Subsequently, Coleman stepped outside into the front yard and called "911" on his cellular telephone [(386) 631-6098]. Coleman called "911", because the "squabble" had gotten "too serious." Coleman was unable to control Green and Green was not listening.

Coleman advised the "911" operator to send police and an ambulance, and to "send them quick, because Jermaine [Green] was out of control and he [Green] needed help." Coleman requested an ambulance, because had a bleeding head injury. This injury reportedly occurred in the backyard of the residence. Coleman did not see how the injury occurred.

While waiting on the police to arrive, Coleman saw Green shut the front door on the residence. The lights inside the residence were also turned off.

At this time, six to seven marked patrol units arrived on scene. Coleman heard the units traveling "up to a point" with their sirens activated, and observed them arrive with their emergency lights activated. The units parked on Magnolia Avenue just west of the intersection of Magnolia Avenue and South Franklin Street.

Upon arrival of the patrol units, Coleman informed the uniformed officers that Green was inside the residence armed with a knife, and to "please, get in there." At that time, Coleman believed that Green and were the only people inside the residence, but due to there being "so much excitement going on", Coleman did not know if Clint Henry, Donna Green or Ann Holsey were also inside.

Patrol officers subsequently kicked in the front door of the residence, which Green had reportedly locked from the inside. A few seconds later Coleman heard gunshots. At that time, Coleman was standing by the street, twenty to twenty-five feet away.

Coleman heard no voices or noises inside the residence as the uniformed patrol officers approached. Coleman also heard no voices, noises, or commands being issued by law enforcement while the officers were inside; only gunshots. Coleman qualified his account of these events stating, "I'm not saying that they just went inside and started shooting, I'm just saying I didn't hear anything."

On Wednesday, September 25, 2013, SA Scott Peterka obtained copies of the audio/ video recordings made on this date by DBPD Officer Kevin F. Connelly and DBPD Officer Richard J. Maher depicting the officer involved shooting incident at Magnolia Avenue in Daytona Beach, Florida. A summary of the recording is as follows:

On this date, DBPD officers responded to Magnolia Avenue, regarding a fight/ domestic dispute. Officer Connelly and Officer Maher responded to the incident location. As Officer Maher is responding to the incident location, Officer Maher receives a radio transmission reporting that an involved party was in possession of either a "knife" and/ or "chainsaw."

Subsequently, Officer Connelly and Officer Maher arrived at the incident location and encounter numerous individuals outside of the residence. Officer Connelly and Officer Maher are informed that Jermaine L. Green is currently holding against her will inside the residence, and that Green locked all the doors to the residence. Additionally, it was reported to the officers that Green is armed with a knife.

Officer Connelly advises over the radio that Green has "barricaded" himself inside the residence and can hear someone "screaming." Additionally, Officer Connelly states that they (officers) were going to "make a forced entry" into the residence. Officer Connelly determined the front door to the residence opens inward, and requests DBPD Officer Scott C. Brunier to "kick it" (kick open the door).
Officer Brunier kicks in the door to the residence. Officer Maher then immediately witnesses Green shielding himself from the officers with [redacted] and holding a knife in his right hand in front of her. Green is dressed in a yellow t-shirt and is nude from the waist down, except for a pair of white socks.

Subsequently, Green pulls [redacted] into a bedroom outside the view of the officers. Officer Connelly has now positioned himself inside the residence where he can view the bedroom and witnessed Green holding [redacted] on-top of him, lying on the bedroom floor, with the knife to her throat. Officer Connelly gives clear commands to Green to "Let her go!" and "Drop the knife!" When Green fails to obey these commands, Officer Connelly advances toward the bedroom followed by Officer Maher and Officer Brunier.

As the officers advanced toward the bedroom, Green begins pushing the knife into [redacted] chest, causing the blade of the knife to bend. Subsequently, Green raises the knife up and stabs down toward [redacted] several times. The motion of Green's arm was blocked by [redacted] Simultaneously, Officer Connelly and Officer Maher rush into the bedroom and discharge their firearms several times at Green, striking both Green and [redacted]

Officer Maher and Officer Brunier then removes [redacted] from the bedroom and Officer Connelly tosses the knife across the room out of Green's reach. Officer Connelly also transmits over the radio that shots have been fired and requests two ambulances to respond to the incident location. Officer Connelly then remains in the bedroom monitoring Green's actions, while Officer's Maher and Brunier clear the residence.

Officer Connelly, Officer Maher, and Officer Brunier continued to secure the incident scene and monitor Green as they waited for emergency medical personnel to arrive on scene. After the shooting incident, Green does not make any discernable statements to any of the officers throughout the duration of the videos. DBPD Lieutenant Bill Rhodes subsequently entered the residence and notified Officer Connelly and Officer Maher to turn off their Axon cameras.
